

A father has two sons.

The younger son demanded his share of the family's wealth and his father gave it all to him.

The younger son packed up and moved away.

The younger son spent all his money and had no more to buy food.

The younger son had to get a job feeding pigs.

The younger son knew he made a mistake and headed home to ask for forgiveness. But before he even got home, his father saw him in the distance.

The father asked for a robe, ring, and sandals for his younger son because he was lost and now was found.

The father forgave the younger son and had a party to celebrate his return home.
